OUR MISSION

Vanport Media offer experienced, quality feedback so that your vision can be communicated as clearly and accurately as possible. Whether you have a short story manuscript, a press release or company handbook, a magazine article draft or a complete work ready to be published, Vanport Media will work hard to make your words shine.

WHAT WE DO

Vanport Media can handle all of your editing, publishing and writing needs. We believe attentive editing and publishing can be the difference between effectively reaching your readers — whoever they may be — and failure to make the author/audience connection. We're fluent in AP style, and we have a strong background in MLA and Chicago styles. All types of manuscripts and documents can be aided, including business, literary, non-fiction, academic, journalistic and Web writing. Confidentiality is guaranteed — we will treat both you and your work with respect and professionalism. We can also provide consulting on a range of writing, public relations and communications needs. New clients may receive a one- to two-page light edit of a manuscript for free, while students receive a 20 percent discount on most services. Rates can be found on our Web site at www.vanportmedia.com.

GETTING STARTED

Electronic submissions are preferred and can be sent as e-mail attachments. Microsoft Word (Mac or Windows), OpenOffice, RTF and plain text documents are all acceptable. Work can also be surface mailed, but do not send your original manuscript — mail a copy, please, as it will be physically marked up. All manuscripts should be typed, double-spaced and in a 12-point serif font, such as Times.
